“Marriage that Commends the Gospel”

QUESTIONS

(potential discussion/conversation questions to use in your GGs this week)

1. Pastor Shane said, “Husbands and wives should commend the gospel in how they relate to one another.”
  - a. What marriages have you been exposed to that demonstrated the gospel well?
  - b. What are practical and daily ways you can do this in your own marriage? What does this look like?
  - c. Confession: How have you failed to demonstrate the truth of the gospel in your marriage? How do you plan to change that?
2. Pastor Shane called husbands to “appreciate your wife as different”.
  - a. In your marriage, how are you most different from your spouse?
  - b. How has this difference helped to grow you or give you a different perspective?
3. If you are unmarried...
  - a. How can you help those around you (especially in our church and growth group) live in their marriages according to this passage?
  - b. How can you cultivate what this text is calling for in your own life, even now without a husband/wife?
