2 Corinthians 7:2-16

“How God Brings Comfort and Joy to the Downcast”

QUESTIONS

(potential discussion/conversation questions to use in your GGs this week)

1. Related to Point #3 in the sermon on "The Corinthian's Redemptive Grief," How can we identify when our own grief is godly as opposed to worldly? How can we help one another in this effort?
2. On v. 9 regarding godly grief that led the Corinthians to repentance - Can you recall a time when a friend's rebuke led you to godly grief, repentance, and a renewed love for God and that friend? Share that with us.
3. Tony exhorted us to renewed comfort and joy through looking to God and looking to brothers and sisters who God often uses to minister this encouragement.
 - How are we doing in this area as a group?
 - What are the potential barriers we might face as a group in our efforts at comforting one another? How can we overcome these barriers?
 - How can we grow as a group in this exercise of looking to God and one another?
