QUESTIONS

(potential discussion/conversation questions to use in your GGs this week)

1. Opener: In the text this week and in the coming weeks we regularly see Jesus being rejected. Share a memorable time of rejection from your life (it doesn't have to be serious!). How did you feel?
2. Tony showed the difference between Judas' wickedness and Peter's weakness.
  - a. How can we discern the difference between these?
  - b. How should we respond when we see them in our lives?
3. Peter showed pride and presumption leading up to his denial.
  - a. How can we guard against these?
  - b. How can we help one another be on guard against these?
4. Peter's fall shows us that no one is beyond Jesus' redeeming and restoring grace.
  - a. What lies do you tend to believe when you sin that say you're beyond hope?
  - b. How do you correct those lies with truth?
5. Where are you most likely to experience the kind of mockery or shaming that Jesus experienced from the soldiers (22:63-65)?
  - a. What gospel truths can help us endure those experiences?
6. Why does Luke seem to be going out of his way to show that Jesus anticipated his rejection and suffering?
  - a. When have you received comfort from trusting in the words of Jesus?
  - b. How can we use Jesus' words to help one another?
