1 Corinthians 15:35-49

“The Nature of Our Resurrected Bodies”

QUESTIONS

(potential discussion/conversation questions to use in your GGs this week)

1. The Christian is meant to view death positively and confidently. Why? How does this look different than the world around us?
2. This text expanded on the ways in which the resurrection gives us hope. What are some of those ways?
3. What were the analogies Paul used for the resurrection? Can anyone recall what they mean? In what ways do these analogies lead you to praise God?
4. How does the resurrection of our bodies change our grieving of loss? Is it okay to grieve in light of the resurrection?
5. How does 1 Corinthians 15 solve our problems of death and despair?
6. In what ways does this sermon point us to Jesus?
7. How might you have conversations with non-believers about death and despair, and use the truths from this text to preach the gospel?
